Now't Si'am e ne schaleche Si'am,
(Hello my respected friends and relatives)

We are so honored to be hosting the 3rd Annual Esqalph etse Kwelengsen 'Gathering of the Eagles,' a mini-canoe journey, potlatch and strategy session with the Alliance of Earth, Sky & Water Protectors, May 21-29, 2023. We invite you to join us for the Esqalph etse Kwelengsen as we celebrate a week-long canoe journey from Anacortes WA to Lopez, San Juan & Orcas Islands landing on Friday, May 26th at Lummi Nation. We conclude with a potlatch of food, spiritual ceremonies and strategy circles sharing indigenous knowledge as we prepare for the coming climate crisis.

We are expanding our efforts bridging indigenous communities from around the world starting with South Africa, Ecuador and Belize -- welcoming grassroots leaders to participate and share their struggles protecting land, water, air and natural habitat. Our plan is to continue our international awareness campaigns to include fund-raising for canoes, travel and training opportunities in a community-to-community effort together as family during the Paddle to West Seattle (at Muckleshoot) in July. In return, a Pacific NW Indigenous delegation will travel in a culture exchange to visit the African Knowledgekeepers for the winter solstice in South Africa.

As we unite grassroot organizers in their fight, struggle and survival in protecting their sacred homelands, we can't do this alone. It's with your generosity we are able to continue working with our Alliance of Earth, Sky & Water Protectors in providing this event free and open to our communities with: Healing, Hope, Honor, Happiness & Hospitality. Our friends at Catskill Mountainkeeper (Hurleyville NY) are accepting tax-deductible donations and grants for our non-profit events for 2023. Hy shqe Si'am e ne schaleche Si'am (thank you friend/relative). Feel free to contact me anytime at: (360) 391-7560. Thank you. ✚

Sincerely,

Sul'ka dub ~ Freddie Lane
Organizer - Lummi Enrolled Citizen

2023 Gathering Overview

Gathering of the Eagles «|» Indigenous Culture Exchange «|» Canoe Travel

The Gathering of the Eagles is celebrating our third-year with a canoe paddle, potlatch and the Alliance of Earth, Sky & Water Protectors Strategy Sessions uniting indigenous wisdom and knowledgekeepers facing the world's climate crisis. This year, our Gathering will bridge international territories unifying canoe tribes and indigenous community leaders from North, South & Central America, Canada, and South Africa concluding with strategy talks over 9-days. ✚

Alliance of Earth, Sky & Water Protectors

The Alliance of Earth, Sky, and Water Protectors is an intergenerational, cross cultural, inter-tribal network of environmental and climate justice groups and grassroots organizers leading struggles to stop extractive industries and protect sacred sites, land, air and water. This Alliance is a branch of the Extreme Energy Extraction Collaborative, a grassroots, frontline community-led initiative to create a space in which those fighting extreme energy extraction can develop relationships and a shared framework across issues, making our local work stronger and our collective voice larger. ✚
